REAP

For more than 25 years, REAP has helped Jersey herd owners operate more efficiently—and be more profitable. Just ask any of the 1,000-plus herd owners who are enrolled in REAP.

Registration included for Jerseys under six months old.

Special catch-up registration fees apply for first-year REAP herds:

- $0 using electronic file or infoJersey.com, animals up to 24 months of age.

Herd Register and Generation Count 4 through 6 status:

- $10 using electronic file or infoJersey.com, animals over 24 months.
- $15 when using paper application, animals 6 months and older.

Herdbook Entry ID (Generation Count status 1 through 3):

- $5 for electronic registration of living animals over 24 months old.

JerseyTags, discount pricing on high performance, tamper-evident tags that meet requirements for permanent registration ID, including Allflex nextGen tissue sampling unit (TSU) for genotyping and BVD diagnostics.

Jersey LD and HD Genotyping, discount pricing for genotyping with PTAs for production, fitness and type genomic tests, plus add-ons. Order and access evaluations at the infoJersey Genomic Testing Center.

Ownership transfers ... special benefits for REAP herd owners when transfers are filed within 60 days of sale date:

Build a better business. REAP makes it easy.

REAP delivers the animal ID, performance and type information and genetic evaluations you want and need to increase your profits from Registered Jerseys™.

- Maximize lifetime profitability by using JerseyMate™ with its critical inbreeding management feature.
- Increase profitable production of protein and fat by using REAP reports on animal and herd performance in your decision-making process.
- Extend your cows' productive life and breed a more uniform herd using information from the linear type traits appraisal program.
- Add the power of genomics to your genetic program. Manage your heifer program, make better matings and take advantage of the demand for genomic-tested Jerseys.
- Add revenue by selling excess replacements as Registered Jerseys™ with permanent ID and Official Performance Pedigrees from the American Jersey Cattle Association.
- Complete the sale with discounted transfers, and generate repeat business from satisfied buyers.
